Political Ghosts Stir Board Of Lindenhurst Monday

Ghosts of politics in the April election popped up and rattled around at the Lindenhurst village board meeting Monday night.

Citizen Lowell Graves, former village trustee who was defeated along with the entire slate of Citizens' Party candidates, presented a list of eight "statements" made by the opposing party during campaigning. The sum total of the statements indicates the previous village board was guilty of malfeasance in office, Graves said.

ASSIGNED AS "ghost-chasers" by Village President Robert Randall were the present village committees who were given 30 days to come up with a report on the charges made.

Graves said he was bringing up the statements because results of the election seemed to indicate that the voters put great credence in the statements. If untrue, they may have been made by "lack of intent (to indicate malfeasance) . . . or lack of knowledge," Graves said. If they are true, he said that the previous all-Citizen's Party Village Board may have been guilty of improper actions.

THE STATEMENTS, which both sides agreed were written, mostly came from an 11-point platform drawn up by the Conservative-Progressive party. They included:

A proposal to cut weeds at least twice a year. "Is this new?" Graves asked.

Increase the percentage of fees that the building commissioner should get was another proposal. "What should be the proper fee?" said Graves.

An independent source should perform all percolation tests. "Who should do it and what price?"

A question was raised by the C-P Party about code numbers on check vouchers.

A claim that village jobs were issued without process of low bids.

A question of the failure of the board to go back and get $5,000 in money, indicating the board lost the money.

Minutes of board meetings were to be sent to every resident but that had been dropped.

What about the shopping center? Graves asked what that meant to the duties of the board.

"MY REPUTATION in the village has been somewhat impaired by the statements made," Graves said.

"A split board means no progress in the village. We must get the air cleared so we can begin to progress again," he said, speaking of the village as a whole. At present the board is composed of three from each party with village president Randall being a Citizen's Party member and voting in case of ties.

Randall exercised that tie-breaking vote Monday night to defeat a proposed amendment by Trustee Charles Pawlowski to the minutes of the previous meeting. Pawlowski wanted a statement, made by the village engineer on his opinion of the chances of the Lindenhurst Water Co. to sell to the village, included in the minutes. The Citizen's Party members dismissed the statement as an opinion only and not a fact.

IN OTHER business, the board set up a budget schedule with a special meeting June 1 to draw up and pare down budget requests from each committee. The money will be appropriated at the regular meeting in July. Review will be made at the August meeting.

An interim census for the village still may be taken about August, the board decided, if it is found through a preliminary study that population is up at least 300. The continually revised population figure is needed to increase the village's return of money from the state. It is estimated that increased income

Noted Flower Arranger At Garden Club

The Antioch Garden Club will present Mrs. I. L. Burger, well known flower arranger and judge, in a "Preview to Spring," on Tuesday, May 19, at 1 p.m. at Wesley Hall.

Tickets for the program may be procured from any Garden Club member. The money made will be used to help defray the cost of the flower show which will be presented in July, and which will be free to the public.

Tea will follow the program and there will be an opportunity to see Mrs. Burger work at closer range, the Garden Club says.

A flower arrangement made by Mrs. Burger will be given to someone in the audience.

derived from a 300-person increase would be profitable after costs of the census are taken out.

TRUSTEE PAWLOWSKI suggested a continual census be worked out to keep closer watch on births and deaths in the village. He presented thoughts on a central village reporting system and will attempt to work out a proposal for the board.

Efforts of the village to collect more sales taxes on goods sold in the village are being held up because Village Attorney Ellis Fuqua does not have a complete list of merchants doing business in the community. The license and ordinance committee will provide a list soon.

Pres. Randall read a letter from Antioch oil dealer W. V. Lahti who said that he has been watching efforts of the village to get the additional sales tax money. He notified the board that he has been trying to credit all sales made by his company to the village so it may collect the half per cent in sales tax money. The board also completed its roster of officers with unanimous rehiring of appointive officers.

Antioch Takes Sales Lead Again In March

Antioch moved up again during March to take the western Lake County lead in retail sales in figures reported by the secretary of state.

The community received $3,504.67 as its share of retailer's municipal occupational tax collected. The amount represents one half per cent of the business done in the community during the month.

Comparative figures from other communities are: Barrington, $5,805.15; Fox Lake, $3,080.81; Grayslake, $2,252.46; Lake Villa, $744.81; Lindenhurst, $47.99; Mill Creek, $21.16; North Chicago, $4,180.05; Richmond, $411.47; Round Lake, $1,320.57; Round Lake Beach, $659.13; Round Lake Park, $645.68; Spring Grove, $182.02; Wauconda, $1,932.88; and Zion, $5,041.46.

Firemen Make Rerun To Home, Too Late

A re-run to a home near Grass Lake Rd. by the Antioch fire dept. on Wednesday morning was not as successful as the run there the night before. The home was a total loss.

Firemen were called to what appeared to be a closet fire on Tuesday night which was extinguished after about $2,000 damage. But apparently the fire erupted again and the home was burned out on a Wednesday morning call by the department.

THE FIVE-ROOM home was owned by George Davidson and no accurate estimate of total damage could be listed by Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen.

The fire department answered three other calls last week, including a davenport fire in the home of Bruno Buino at Fox River Springs on Sunday. There was about $1,500 damage to the home interior. Electrical wiring in the 1955 Oldsmobile of Frank Lohaus, Salem, caused about $50 damage as the car was parked on Antioch's Main St. Friday night.

HS Board Views Bond Issue Defeat

A discussion of the defeat of the $1,785,000 proposed bond issue for a new Antioch High School was expected at the board canvass of the votes on Wednesday night.

The proposal was turned down by voters on Saturday by a 148 vote margin. There were 1042 votes against the issue, 894 in favor.

IT WAS NOT official what board action would be now but several members agreed that the board would not come back with the same issue. Two courses are in view immediately, says Robert Denman, president of the school board.

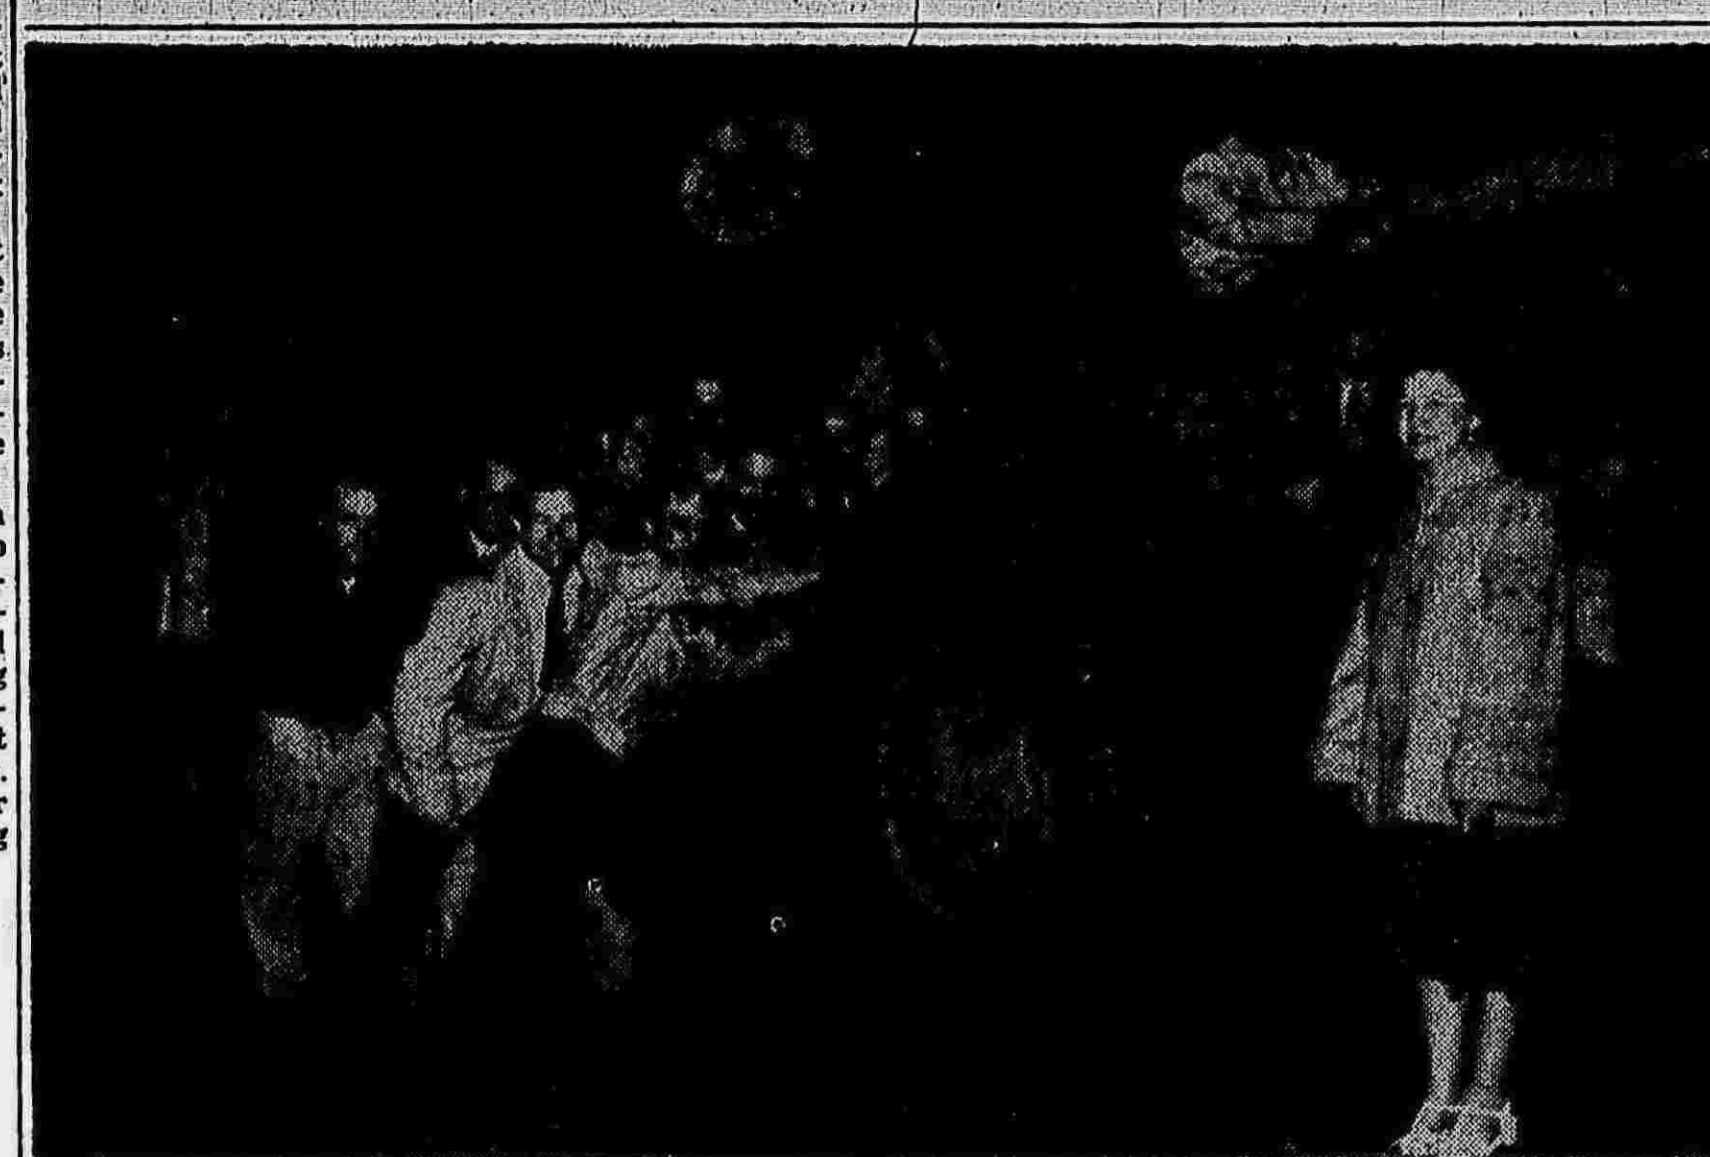

They are to drop the option on the 50½ acre site on Loon Lake Rd. and concentrate on additional facilities in Antioch; or drastically revise the plan for a new building on the Lake Villa site.

"WE'LL HAVE TO do something within the next three months," Denman said. "We'll come up with something different," he promised.

"Financially, an addition or new building at the present school may be better, but educationally, I don't think so," he said.

The proposal was actually defeated in the Antioch precinct which GETTING BEHIND Golf View tavern owner Les Huff's efforts to make this year outstanding in fast softball are managers of the newly reorganized Lake-Keno Men's Softball League. Huff, in the driver's seat of a giant earth-mover, is building and donating a lighted park for use of the ball league. It is located on Rt. 83 north of Antioch. His Mrs. Huff watches as the nine managers get behind the big effort.

Name the Fawn Entries Coming In - 161 Prizes

Several entries in the Antioch News "Name the Fawn" contest are beginning to come in to the editor's desk as youngsters up to and including 18 years try for one of the 161 prizes to be awarded in the competition.

All that is necessary to enter is for a contestant to submit a name for the Antioch News fawn at Deer Haven, Fox Lake. Names must be four words or less, and contestants may submit as many entries as they wish. Each entry must be on a separate Official Entry Blank or reasonable facsimile.

First prize is a Bulova wrist watch inscribed with the winner's name and a season pass for the winner and family to Deer Haven. There are 160 other prizes.

The top winners will be the guests of The Antioch News at Deer Haven, to receive their awards in a public presentation.

The Official Entry Blank appears on page 8.

Final Antioch Grade School PTA Meets

The final meeting of the year of the Antioch Grade School P.T.A. will be Monday, May 18 at 8 p.m. The new officers for the coming year will be installed.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Robert Babcox who will talk on traffic safety.

Kindergarten room mothers, Mrs. Harold Knutsen, Mrs. Wayne Polsgrove, and Mrs. Otto Beeger will have charge of refreshments.

Lake-Keno Is Softball League's New Name

Lake-Keno Senior Men's Softball league was chosen as new name for the area-wide softball league at the second meeting of the season last week. The league was known as the Antioch Men's Softball League last year.

Eight teams already are signed to play in the fast sport and the league will consider two more teams from Lake and Kenosha Counties says Dr. Richard Carlucci, Antioch dentist who is secretary of the league.

PLANS ARE FOR opening of the season on June 2 at the league's own park, two miles north of Antioch. The park is being built and will be operated by Les Huff, owner of the Golf View Tavern on Rt. 83. When the softball league is not using it, the lighted park will be available for use of the general public, Huff says.

Teams with sponsors and fully uniformed who want to join the Lake-Keno league should contact Dr. Carlucci at Antioch 1481 by May 21 in order to be considered for inclusion in the scheduling. Next managers' meeting will be held next Thursday at John and Terry's Saddle Inn on Deep Lake Rd.

Several spots are still open on teams already in the league and managers say that persons contacting them will be given a chance to become a member of a team. Ball players can call Jim Brodie, Antioch 724; R. Becvar, Antioch 1717; Louis Oetting at the Golf View Tavern, UNDERhill 2-3651; Robert Odden, Antioch 1484; John Peacock, ELiot 6-7444 or John Frystak, JUSTice 7-7228.

Lay Cornerstone Sun. for Wilmot School, Church

Laying of the cornerstone for the newly completed Holy Name of Jesus Catholic School and church in Wilmot will be Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The $345,000 structure was completed last fall and has been in use since that time. The Sisters of Charity, teachers at the school, have been housed in a special section of the building since Dec. 20. Severe weather has been attributed to delay in laying of the cornerstone, says the Rev. Harold H. Herbst, pastor.

AN OPEN HOUSE for the building has been arranged after Msgr. Edmund Goebel, superintendent of schools for the Archdiocese, delivers the principal speech at the ceremonies.

The new school contains seven classrooms at present as well as a gymnasium and a general assembly room. The church portion will seat 425 persons and can be expanded for another 400 persons when the summer attendance is up.

Last Days to Register For Special Election

Last day for registering to vote in the special election for state's attorney will be Monday, May 25 says Lloyd E. Murrie, Antioch Township supervisor.

Voters in Antioch Township may register at Murrie's office or at the Grass Lake Food Mart with Mrs. Carol Cervenka. In Lake Villa they may register at the office of Supervisor Edward Tiede on Grand Ave.

Registration must be completed 28 days before the special election which is on June 23. Democrat Richard Kahn and Republican Bruno Stanczak are vying for the post.

Town to Watch With Interest

Workers at Regal China Co. in Antioch will vote May 22 on whether to accept the International Chemical Workers Union as a bargaining agent for them with company management.

The election, from 3 to 6:30 p.m., will be conducted by Norbert C. Rayford, of Chicago, a referee of the National Labor Relations Board.

AN ESTIMATED 160 employees will be eligible to vote under the statutes of the NLRB. The voting unit consists of all production and maintenance employees and line leaders on regular or regular part-time in the employment period ending April 26. This excludes all office, clerical and supervisory employees.

Plant Manager Harry Miller had no statement to make concerning the election.

The election and date was agreed upon by the company and the union at an NLRB meeting here on April 7. Rayford said the date chosen for eligibility of employees to vote in the election was jointly agreed upon by the company and union. The date is necessary because in instances of where a company opposes union representation, dismissal of employees favorable to a union is known, he explained.

Voting will be in an unoccupied room on the second floor of the plant on North Ave. Employees will pick up ballots and vote in the room with Rayford acting as an election judge.

ATTEMPTS TO organize the union here have been going on for about three months with T. H. (Red) Sheeney as organizer. His union, which numbers internationally about 71,000 members, is bargaining agent for employees at Fansteel, Johns-Manville, and recently has organized the workers at Zion Curtain Industry in this area. The union headquarters is in Louisville, Ky.

The union hopes to organize and stump for more pay, better working conditions and other benefits which include "equal work for equal pay," says organizer Sheeney.

SHEENEY SAYS that his union became interested in Regal China employees "after receiving numerous letters from people in the area." He said that when his organizing efforts began, there were 222 eligible employees but that employment now has dropped.

The NLRB office in Chicago has received some letters of complaint from employees which are on file, but records show that only one formal complaint ever has been lodged against the company. Disposition of the case is not recorded in NLRB files.

It is understood that about half the employees are from the South and one observer estimates that about two-thirds of them have difficulty reading and writing.

The community will be watching the election with interest since it is believed that this is the first attempt of a labor union to organize in large nearby plants. Regal China Co. is Antioch's largest employer.

How to Get Industry for Entire Area Subject of Joint Community Dinner

First meeting of businessmen and community fathers to look into the future of the entire area will be held at a June 1 dinner at Smart's Country House here sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

Attending will be officials of Round Lake, Round Lake Park, Round Lake Beach, Long Lake, Lake Villa, Grayslake, Fox Lake and Antioch to hear "Ways and Means of Attracting Industry" to the area.

SPEAKER WILL BE L. D. Trimble, director of territorial information and research department of Commonwealth Edison Co.

Reservations for the dinner are being made and attendance will be limited to 130 capacity of the dining hall. Reservations will be accepted by Antioch Chamber President Ralph Gresens at Antioch 1229. When the capacity is reached, no more will be taken, he said.

Extra Fee for Some Antioch Library Users

Persons who live outside Antioch township will have to pay an extra fee to use the Antioch Township Library beginning immediately.

The library board passed a resolution calling for a non-resident fee for all patrons who live out of the township at its meeting April 30.

Rainbow Elects Barbara Yates as New Worthy Advisor

Antioch Assembly of the Order of Rainbow for Girls met on Monday, May 11 with Sharon Gibbs presiding as worthy advisor and Mrs. Wilma Gibbs as mother advisor.

Randy Gordon and Verna Turova were initiated into the order.

Barbara Yates was elected as the new worthy advisor whose term will start in June. Her Rainbow installation will be held on June 4 at the Wesley Hall when the new officers will also be installed.

A Mother's Day sketch was put on by the girls honoring their mothers. Mrs. A. Wiegand sang a solo and several of the girls gave readings.

Dee Stillson and her committee served refreshments.

DEAR READER News Editorials

Narrow Defeat Of HS Issue--Next?

In a good vote, the proposition to build a new Antioch High School was beaten last week—but only by a 148 ballot margin.

To most observers, the voting went just as predicted, winning and losing where the experts picked. The margin of loss of the proposition also was just about as predicted.

While the results mean many different things to different people, it narrows down to the reality that something must be done soon to relieve coming crowded conditions at the high school. The narrow margin of the proposal's loss indicates that a good portion of the population also feel this.

It will be only a matter of a few months before a revised proposition for expanded facilities for the high school comes before the voters again. In spite of inflation and high taxes from which every resident suffers, we feel residents will not take their ire on education but will put the blame, and the responsibility for solution, on the proper officials in public office. No longer will voters take the easy way out and vote "No" for necessary items such as schools.

Endorsement Of Area-Thinking

These few words are not enough to pay tribute to the thinking of Antioch's Chamber of Commerce officials who believe in the great future of the entire lakes area as a whole, not selfishly, just Antioch.

Throughout this region, this community is spoken of with a curled lip and perhaps a snarl, depending on the intensity of feeling toward the town. But Antioch's Chamber apparently has decreed "No more."

Here's a salute to the officials who seek to unite the area in thinking, in planning for the growth all will share, and in mutual solving of problems. Gone are the days when one town can carry a region, for in these days of shrunken distances through speed, the region has become the dominant factor, the individual community less important.

We suggest that every person, from the community fathers to the retired Chicagoan living on a distant lake-front, give this Chamber of Commerce plan an active vote of confidence.

Election Losers Can Serve Public

"To the victor belongs the spoils" goes an old political adage. It means of course, that the winner, among other things gets his way and the loser gets nothing.

This seems somewhat unfair.

A drive through the area after an election, especially a hot one as was conducted hereabouts last month, shows a predominance of posters and other political paraphernalia still glaring for public attention. We hold this is litter even though it is tacked down. If you don't think so, take a spin through Wisconsin's Salem Township where an especially intense campaign was waged and where utility pole litter is worst.

Now it would seem that there should be a way to eliminate these posters which have served their usefulness. Perhaps the loser in political battles should be required to take the unsightly posters down with the same zeal all candidates put them up. Then the loser too would have a feeling of having served some public good even though he lost the election.

Effects of Foreign Competition On Jobs 'More Serious' Than Said

The effect of foreign competition on American business is a lot more serious to Antioch workers than you wrote about in your editorial last week. The fact is, that as a result of foreign competition, many plants are already having merchandise made for them under their own labels in Japan and elsewhere and then brought into the United States for sale.

This you can see in our own 5 and 10 cent stores in Antioch. This really strikes home in the potteries right here in Antioch.

Each time a piece of china or pottery is brought in for sale to Chicago, Kenosha or Waukegan, this means we Antioch pottery workers have that much less work in our own shops. We cannot afford that. In order to help ourselves, everyone of us should see to it that our Antioch potteries are helped to be competitive and keep operating. If we do that we can keep our jobs.

Let's know which side our bread is buttered on. Don't be fooled by a lot of gobbledy gook from strangers who are interested in the money they can get out of us.

Let's not drive the Antioch potteries out of business and let's not export our own jobs.

A REGAL WORKER

Voter Thanks CAC Members for Work on HS Issue

I want to express my thanks and appreciation to the Citizens Committee of the new high school. I know some of them personally and know they all put in long tireless hours of hard work. Hard work that was not for any selfish personal reason but for the good of every citizen in Antioch district and for the taxpayers.

But, where were the voters—the ones who voted "No". Their reasons didn't make 2 and 2 add up to 4. "We all agree we need a larger high school and need it now—but, not out in the sticks," they said. So for their personal selfish reasons they're willing to cram their children and their neighbors' children into an undersize building and to retard them of a good education and show no regards to the taxpayer.

"I ain't got no education but I ain't so selfish to wish no one else to get some."

So again I say thanks to you of the Citizens Committee. You did a good job—it's just we voters, who "ain't so good at addin' and figurin' and seein' ahead—please excuse us, won't ye?"

Seaway Threat Or Blessing Rests On Honesty Of Business Dealings

St. Lawrence Seaway—Threat or Blessing?

It can be both, depending on who, and what it is used for.

New foreign products will be shipped to United States. That is not news. It has been going on for years. In fact since the seas have been sailing ships.

United States ships to the foreign countries, too. Looks like this is a two-way deal. In fact, I believe a lot of our hard-earned cash goes across the pond. Is not that where some of our tax money goes?

No harm in dealing with other countries, that is—if it is an honest deal.

Noted remark about Japan worker earns a little more than $1 per day. Do you want to bet that some of our manufacturers would do the same if they could get away with it?

That brings up the question of unions. Again you have the good with the bad. We have to admit that the union has done and will do a lot of good. Also they can be mighty nasty too.

We know that Japan puts the youngsters to work at an early age. We have a place in Antioch that has tried the same thing. No, not at 10 or 12 years, but at 14 and 15 years.

The people of the United States have every chance they wish to get an education. In the South, we wonder what is wrong. Maybe it could be "if no education" it is OK to pay poor wages. No education, may mean not qualified for better pay. Three dollars per hundred pounds for picking cotton. One has to work mighty hard to pick 300 pounds in a day. That is $9 for a day of very hard work.

Other work may pay from 65c to $1 an hour. Who can criticize a man for trying to make more money for the work he does?

One has a right to go where he pleases to go. There is no reason why he should not get a good pay check if he is worth it. Regardless if he has gone to high school or not.

If his work is not satisfactory, the employer does not have to keep him.

Without an education it is hard for some people to put up a good argument. The Boss Man is usually a smooth talker. So he is able to talk the poor worker into thinking he is so wrong but the Boss is Big Shot. Right Man.

Our local pottery manufacturers worried? Why? I don't think the one is worried. Perhaps one of the local pottery manufacturers may be worried. Strange, for they have a right to buy foreign goods. They will have to pay for the goods. If they can get it cheap, and don't have to pay too high wages, I can not see any reason for them to be alarmed. Of course if a union should be organized in the plant, it may mean more wages. If the worker is worth it, why not let him have better wages?

St. Lawrence Seaway—like anything else, it can be for the good, or bad. Let us hope that honesty will be the winner. Honesty in oneself is honesty with others.

Ethel M. Anderson Antioch

P. S. The union that is trying to get in a local pottery is an honest one. Why not give them a chance to prove themselves?

7 Local Doctors Object to MD's Hospital Remark

In your issue of April 23, 1959, in a story on the Countryside Hospital, you quoted Dr. C. P. Midgley as telling a citizens' group "Don't expect support from your doctors on this hospital, it's not that they don't favor the Countryside Hospital Plan, but most live in fear of being denied admittance to their present hospitals if it became known that they were working for erection of another hospital."

We wish to object to that statement and to deny that any of us are living in fear of being denied admittance to our present hospitals.

Those of us that practice at Victory Memorial Hospital have had nothing but pleasant relations with the administration. We have participated in that hospital's building program and will in this one without fear of recriminations. Those of us that practice at St. Theresa's Hospital have the fullest co-operation of the Sisters and the hospital staff. Most hospital administrations these days, welcome the addition of more hospital beds to the community because of the acute shortage of those beds. We are in favor of a hospital in this area, and will support one. However, most of us have reservations on many aspects of the present planning, which we will be happy to discuss with the hospital board at any time.

We also thing the public should be informed that three Antioch doctors attended the community meeting held in Fox Lake for the hospital, contrary to what the Antioch News reported.

Nuptial Mass Unites Mary Joan Thompson and Rex M. Beaumont

A nuptial high Mass at 11 a.m. on April 11 in St. Peter's Catholic Church here united Mary Joan Thompson of Antioch and Rex Mark Beaumont of Waukegan.

The new Mrs. Beaumont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Thompson of Antioch, was given in marriage by her father as the Rev. Alfred J. Henderson pronounced the vows.

The bride wore a gown of bouquet taffeta with long sleeves and sabrina neckline of imported alencon lace, the skirt falling in soft folds in the front with two large taffeta roses on the back of the chapel length train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown headpiece and she carried a cascade bouquet of Amazon lilies.

Her attendants, Miss Joan Burton as maid of honor, Miss Diane Lewis and Miss Etta Mae Dalziel as bridesmaids, chose identical costumes. They wore cocktail length, ice blue taffeta with the hem drawn up slightly in front and held in place with a taffeta rose. The portrait neckline was also trimmed with a taffeta rose. Matching flat taffeta bow clips held their blusher veils and they carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Attending the bridegroom was John H. Sbertoli as best man and John Elarian and Charles Paparagian served as ushers. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ralph Peterson of 664 Lenox Ave., Waukegan.

Peabody was an impatient soul. He regularly paced the floor like a "first-time" father-to-be.

People in the town where he lived naturally became curious of such a character.

"Something is fishy," some would say. Rumors were started. Gossip grew heavy. Peabody's actions were a conversation piece of practically the entire community.

But really there was nothing wrong with Peabody. He was so anxious to walk to the Lake Villa Trust and Savings Bank to put in his savings that his feet naturally started to rotate. You see, Peabody thoroughly enjoyed banking in Lake Villa. It was close, the people were nice and his money was as secure as anywhere else.

Sequoits Tip Round Lake 2-0 In District Opener

Coming through when the chips were down, Antioch's Sequoit baseballers played their best game of the season Tuesday to move into championship bracket of district play.

Behind the four-hit hurling of Don Wiegell, the Sequoits tripped Round Lake 2-0. They were to play Grayslake Wednesday for the district crown which they won last year. Grayslake has beaten the locals twice this year—but now it's tournament time and Coach Larry Leon's crew is always, somehow, tougher then.

WIEGELL STRUCK out nine in going the route and walked only three. His opposing pitcher, Zavodny was almost as tough, walking only two, but he gave up a triple by Ken Stepien, a single by Dan Hogan and an over throw error after another single by Jerry Dahlman. That was his undoing.

The game was Antioch's best defensive tilt to date.

Can Salem Stay Unbeaten? See Game Thursday Night

Still unbeaten, Salem's Falcons rolled on Monday with a 8-2 victory over Clinton and only Union Grove on the local field Thursday stands between the birds and the perfect season.

However, the record is not unblemished because the Falcons had to settle for a 3-3 tie with Waterford on April 23.

BUT GETTING good mileage out of sophomore Jim Westman, coach Bill Becker overlooks the tie and urges the Centrals on just as if the mark was perfect. Westman limited

Clinton to only 6 hits Monday as his mates were collecting 10 including a triple in the seventh by Ron Yates.

The wind-up game Thursday will be the second part of a double-header which will see Pewaukee and Waterford clash at 6 p. m. Winning the final game will mean the South-eastern Conference championship for the Falcons.

Clinton 0-0-0 2-0-0 0-2-6-1

Allendale, 14 Firsts, Takes Grade School Track Event

More schools shared first place finishes and placed more young athletes in the first four spots to even out the annual Grade School Invitational Track Meet but Allendale School for Boys of Lake Villa still captured school honors.

The meet, held May 1 at the Antioch High School track, showed Allendale taking 14 first places in the seventh and eighth grade action, seven in each action.

THOUGH IT WAS only the second of what will be an annual affair, 12 meet records were topped as runners and jumpers got better. Personally accounting for four of the records was seventh grader Gregory Gates of Allendale who dashed 100 yards in 12.4 seconds to beat all eighth graders this year. He also clipped the low hurdles in 6.5, the broad jump in 15 feet, 1 inch and the 50 yard dash in 6.9 seconds.

Allendale runners also set new records in the eighth grade 350-yard run when Andrew Ramirez came home in 49.5 seconds and Wright took the low hurdles in 6.5 seconds.

Other new meet records were set by Charles Carey of Antioch, who took the seventh grade 305-yard run in 53.2 seconds, tied with teammate Ernest Franks. Carey also went over the pole vault total at 5 feet, 6 inches for a new meet record. BEST SHOWING BY Grass Lake School was in the eighth grade football throw when Richard Fowles hurled the pigskin a record 120 feet, 3 inches. He was followed in the meet by Richard Fitch. Grass Lake's Raymond Peterson also took the seventh grade football pitch with a 98 feet, 11 inch heave. However, this was not a meet record for this class for an Allendale seventh grader pitched the ball 117 feet the year before.

The complete meet results this year as released by Coach Robert Walther of Antioch High School, director of the meet:

Fresh Move Into Lineup as Antioch Drops 10-4 Game

Two freshmen sparked defensive play in last week's 10-4 loss to Grayslake but the entire Sequoia team could not figure out the material furnished to them by Ram's pitcher, Bill King. He struck out 16 in six innings.

The locals could get only three hits in scoring their four runs while Grayslake was getting 16 hits. The spacing of the Rams' hits was good for two Antioch twirlers got in real trouble only in the fourth inning when the league leaders tallied five times.

The Antioch defense was bolstered by Dan Hogan in left field and Joe Pleviak at shortstop. Both performed well, says Coach Larry Leon.

LEFTY DON WIEGEL got into trouble in the fourth and was tagged with the loss. Jerry Dahlman, usual third baseman, took over on the hill and did his best of the season. He gave up five hits but only a single run.

Heavy hitting by the big lumber of the Rams accounted for six extra base blows including a home run and two triples for the Rams' Stock. Antioch got two extra base shots—a triple by Eberman and a double by Wolf.

Antioch has only four more games on its season's slate, three during next week. The team travels to Wauconda Friday, meets Grant here for the last home game of the season on Monday and plays a postponed game with Elva-Vernon on Wednesday.

Antioch Sends Two To State Track Finals

Two thinclads from Antioch will compete with the finest in the state at the state finals at Champaign on Saturday. They are long distance ace Bill Dressel and hurler Chris Davis.

That Antioch has taken two boys to the state meet, says Coach Robert Walther. Antioch is the only school in the conference that is sending more than one star. Chris Davis competed in the meet last year.

BOTH CINDERMEN took third places at the district meet in Evanston last Saturday. Davis threw the discus 146' 6" and Dressel ran the mile in 4:39.

Other schools in the conference will send Ken Rawson from Lake Forest, an 880 man; Ron Reinhoefer, Ronud Lake, a 440 sprinter, and Phil Winteroth of Wauconda who broad jumped 20 feet, 9 inches last week against Antioch and Grant.

Antioch News Bowl Event Down To Only 16 Keglers

Tension mounts as the Antioch News Elimination Tournament enters its fourth round.

Jack Lawrence has been given the title of "Giant Killer" after defeating Mike Badame this week with games of 243 and 201. In the second round Lawrence eliminated Elroy Anderson, who according to Jack Sampayo, co-owner of the Antioch Bowl, carries a 179 average. Lawrence has a 140 average.

WITH THE ELIMINATION of Mike Badame and Don Shank, the only high average bowler left in the tournament is Marv Shepard. Shepard still holds high game honors with 245.

Don Richards had a tough time in overcoming Marty Padjen to qualify for the fourth round. Richards took the first game 189 to 187. Then Padjen came back to win the second 193 to 170. Padjen's 191 for the third line was not quite enough as Richards turned in a score of 225 for a series of 594.

HANDICAP made the difference in the match between Art Fortmann and Harold Peterson as they turned in a series of 502 and 503 respectively. Art Fortmann came out on top with games of 158-163 and 181 for his 502 total.

Lou Rausch put together lines of 204 and 226 to easily win over Bill Johnson.

The winners of this round will go into the semifinals and Sampayo is asking that all the eight winners be on hand Sunday afternoon May 17 for the fifth round pairings.

JOCKO KOPPEN and Bill Carney Monday were the only two who had not rolled off their third round match. The victor of this match will be paired with Art Bywell for the fourth round being held this week.

The rest of the fourth round matches are Lou Rausch vs. Norm Edwards, Charles Erbach vs. Kenny Nicpon, Marv Shepard vs. Art Fortmann, Don Wheeler vs. Joe Sterbenz, Bob Stelskal vs. Jack Lawrence and Doc Ripley vs. Don Richards.

Phil Vos was paired with Tom Atwood and is the only fourth round match that has been rolled off so far. Vos put together games of 176 and 155 to come out on top of Atwood's 320 total for two games.

IF ALL THE FOURTH round winners can arrange to be on hand Sunday afternoon it is possible that the fifth round might be rolled off this week, reducing the roster to four finalists, Sampayo said.

Winner of the tourney, which started with 128 entrants, will receive a cash prize of $100 plus a handsome trophy from The Antioch News. Every loser receives more money the longer he lasts in the bowl-off.

Bowlers are matched with the lowest average bowler being given a handicap to put both on equal terms with the better kegler. After each round, winners' names are tossed into a hat and redrawn and rematched.

Try to Save State's Prairie Chickens

The prairie chicken, once so famous as a game bird that it attracted hunters to Illinois from the eastern United States and Europe, may be saved from extermination in the state if small areas of land can be leased or bought for refuges, according to Dr. Harlow B. Mills, chief of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The number of prairie chickens on a study area in Jasper county increased recently when a farmer cooperated living in the area placed 70 acres in the soil bank in 1958 and allowed the clover and grass crops to go unharvested.

Track Squad Wins 2nd Triangular

Beaten only once by another team and once by the weather, Antioch's track squad roared over two other conference teams in a triangular meet at Grant on Thursday. The weather knocked out the scheduled meet at Grayslake on Monday of this week.

Seven firsts was the margin for the 67½-41¼-36¼ win for Antioch. The same steady stars came through for the locals in taking the long distance events and the hurling events.

Chris Davis and Bill Dressel each took two firsts but were overhauled by Winteroth of Wauconda who took three firsts.

Antioch, Newport Twps. Petitioning To Join Soil Conservation District

Landowners of five acres or more in Antioch and Newport Townships are now petitioning to become a part of the Lake County Soil Conservation District according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County farm adviser. A letter and petition card were recently sent to all landowners of five acres or more in the two Lake County townships.

Present townships now in the Lake County District are Warren, Fremont, Cuba, Ela, and Vernon. Directors of the district are Ray Behm, Grayslake; Henry Schaeppi, Prairie View; Henry Knigge, Mundelein; C. A. Faulkner, Gurnee; and Stanley Rouse, Mundelein.

THE ACTION to include Antioch and Newport townships in the district was prompted by the desire on the part of several landowners to obtain the services of district conservationist, Elmer Offerman.

The letter accompanying the petitions sent to the landowners pointed out the fact that the district will not result in any increase in taxes, cannot levy taxes or issue bonds, and will provide, without cost to the owner or operator, technical assistance on soil conservation problems. The use of the services of the district are voluntary on the part of the owner or operator.

Those receiving petition cards are urged to sign and return them as soon as possible in order that a hearing can be held and the landowners be eligible for service, Nicholas says.

BVI Sales, Profits Up Despite Fire

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Burgess Vibrocrafters, Inc., was held Saturday, May 9, at the temporary offices in Grayslake. The impressive ninth annual report of the organization was reviewed by Pres. George R. Bell.

During the year ending Jan. 31, 1959, BVI produced a net profit of $250,215, an improvement of about 150 per cent over the previous year and an all-time high for the company.

NET SALES of $3,743,035 were 75 per cent above the previous fiscal year, Bell said.

He stated that sales in the company's first quarter ending April 30, 1959, were more than double sales during the first quarter of the 1958 fiscal year.

This improvement occurred even though a fire last New Year's Day completely destroyed BVI's plant and offices at Grayslake.

TEMPORARY PLANT facilities were set up at Libertyville and by Jan. 12, electric can openers, paint sprayers and other tools and appliances were back in production.

Construction on a new BVI plant, 85 per cent larger than the old one, is now under way in Grayslake. Bell said he expects production to be started in the new building in September.

To Stage Zion Passion Play Outdoors

Because of the April 11 fire which destroyed the Zion Auditorium where the Zion Passion Play was presented since 1939, the Rev. Jabez Taylor, author and producer of the play, announced this week that plans are under way to present the religious drama outdoors through the month of June, near the site chosen for the new sanctuary, auditorium and educational unit of the Christian Catholic Church, which was also destroyed by fire.

An outdoor amphitheatre is being prepared which will be unique in its arrangement for continuous operation of the various scenes of the play. The stage is so arranged that the sun falls on the players and scenery to provide natural lighting from behind the audience who will be seated in a bowl-type arrangement.

The Rev. Mr. Taylor indicated that it will be unnecessary to revise the play in any way from the script and sequence of scenes which this year were substantially altered from previous years.

THE FIRST AND only presentation this year was April 5.

The producer said that those who have made reservations for future performances will receive refunds or credit as an alternative for one of the outdoor presentations in June.

The schedule of performances in the amphitheatre is as follows: June 7, 14, 21, and 28, with possible continuation through July. All performances are on Sunday afternoon and start at 3 p.m.

Plans are being made but it will be some time before the Passion Play Auditorium can be constructed because of limited funds. Many friends have sent in contributions toward the building fund. Anyone desiring to help financially may do so by sending funds to Zion Passion Play Building Fund, Zion, Ill.

Lake Villa OKs Doughnut Day

An official permit to hold "Doughnut day" in Lake Villa on Friday, June 12, has been granted to The Salvation Army.

Village Clerk Neil Reidel has notified "Doughnut Day" headquarters of the approval, report Mrs. G. Reed Basinger of Oak Park, suburban area chairman, and Mrs. Earl O. Ehrhardt of Elmhurst, co-chairman.

On "Doughnut Day" local residents serving as volunteer taggers will sell the little dough-nut-shaped tags, symbols of The Salvation Army's help for the distressed.

Midshipman Makes Honor List Again

Achieving the Superintendent's List at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., was Midshipman Dennis W. Brazina of 258 Park Ave., Antioch.

The Superintendent's List is similar in many ways to the Dean's List at many colleges and universities, although at the Naval Academy it is much more difficult to achieve and therefore a higher honor. In order for a midshipman to be named for the list he had to meet a minimum academic average of 80 per cent in aptitude and possess a conduct standing satisfactory to the Commandant of Midshipmen.

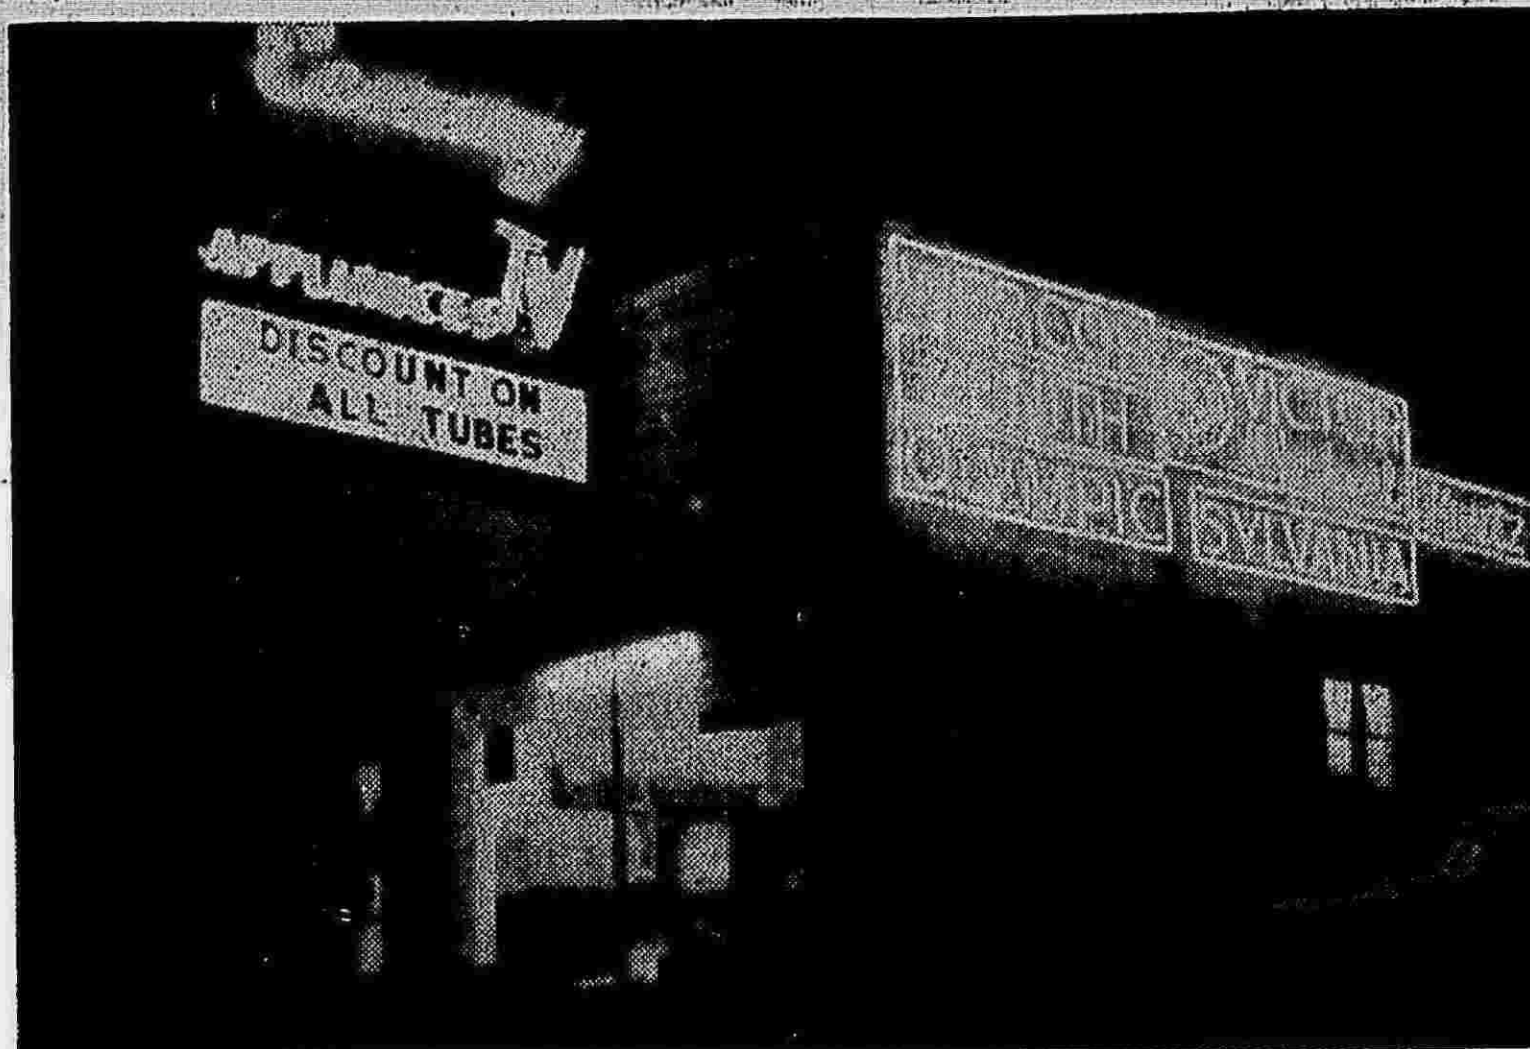

Those midshipmen who achieve this distinction are granted special privileges commensurate with their class.

Economy In State Government Starts by Cutting Many 'Small' Items

By State Rep. Paul Simon
How can the State of Illinois save money in its governmental operations?
I know I don't have all the answers. But I think I have a few.
One is that there must be more pressure from "folks back home" for economy in government. I think it is good for all of us to be reminded regularly that there are people concerned with the constantly rising costs of government. The pressure for spending greatly exceeds the pressure for saving money. The executive and legislative branches need to be reminded a little more often of public concern for excessive spending.

THIS DOES NOT mean that every increase in the cost of government is wrong. But a proper balance is needed and is not always there.

What are some things needed to give us this balance in Illinois?
1. A great evil in state government is setting aside money in special funds, known as "earmarked funds." Instead of putting all state income into one general fund and then spending on the basis of need, all kinds of separate funds are created and money from these separate funds apparently seem less sacred than money from the general revenue fund.

I recall during my first term submitting an amendment to eliminate a $55,000 decorative water fountain at the state fair from an appropriation. I was defeated in this move.
The argument used was not that the water fountain was needed, but that the money for the water fountain comes out of the Agricultural Premium Fund "so it doesn't make any difference anyway."

ONE OF THE state senators last week said in a newspaper column that he was not going to oppose a needless state expenditure because it comes out of another of the earmarked funds.

I am convinced that the state loses millions of dollars each year because of the expensive habit of earmarking funds.
2. Patronage is an expensive luxury when carried on to the extent it is in Illinois. Whenever people are employed because they can produce votes instead of being employed because they can do a job well, the costs are tremendous.
Illinois has many thousands of patronage jobs. The Governor of Wisconsin, by comparison, I am told has control over about 25 jobs and the Governor of California over 60.

3. Appropriations need to be reduced in many cases. Appropriations committees of the House and Senate have no staff really to examine the budgets and as a result intelligent voting on the budget is extremely difficult. The budget in Illinois has grown from $1.2 billion to $2.4 billion in six years. Much of this has been in the needed areas of education and welfare, but many of the increases are hard to justify.
THE APPROPRIATIONS for the secretary of state have risen roughly 133 per cent in six years. While our agricultural population has gone down, appropriations in this field have doubled in six years. And I could go on with many more examples.

One of the difficulties is that because the budget is such a complicated thing, many legislators apparently feel we must take the budget as proposed. As a result, during my three terms in the House I do not recall a single appropriation that has been substantially reduced.

4. Government officials need to be told by the administration and by legislators that needless frills should be cut out, no matter how small the savings may seem. The Governor could start by eliminating little things like the signs at the end of each highway construction job which say that William G. Stratton is the Governor. Democrats have been as guilty of this type of thing as Republicans, but no one can convince me that is necessary for doing a good job on the highway. The same thing goes for mass distribution of expensive highway maps and many other such little things. But the little things add up to a tremendous total.

I don't expect that these suggestions will be accepted readily because they tread on too many sacred toes. But if we expect government expenditures to fall in line with needs we'll have to step on some toes.

Antioch, Newport Twps. Petitioning To Join Soil Conservation District

Landowners of five acres or more in Antioch and Newport Townships are now petitioning to become a part of the Lake County Soil Conservation District according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County farm adviser. A letter and petition card were recently sent to all landowners of five acres or more in the two Lake County townships.

Present townships now in the Lake County District are Warren, Fremont, Cuba, Elia, and Vernon. Directors of the district are Ray Behm, Grayslake; Henry Schaeppi, Prairie View; Henry Knigge, Mundelein; C. A. Faulkner, Grunee; and Stanley Rouse, Mundelein.

THE ACTION To include Antioch and Newport townships in the district was prompted by the desire on the part of several landowners to obtain the services of district conservationist, Elmer Offerman.

The letter accompanying the petitions sent to the landowners pointed out the fact that the district will not result in any increase in taxes, cannot levy taxes or issue bonds, and will provide, without cost to the owner or operator, technical assistance on soil conservation problems. The use of the services of the district are voluntary on the part of the owner or operator.

Those receiving petition cards are urged to sign and return them as soon as possible in order that a hearing can be held and the landowners be eligible for service, Nicholas says.

BVI Sales, Profits Up Despite Fire

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Burgess Vibrocrafters, Inc., was held Saturday, May 9, at the temporary offices in Grayslake. The impressive ninth annual report of the organization was reviewed by Pres. George R. Bell.

During the year ending Jan. 31, 1959, BVI produced a net profit of $250,215, an improvement of about 150 per cent over the previous year and an all-time high for the company.

NET SALES of $3,743,035 were 75 per cent above the previous fiscal year, Bell said.

He stated that sales in the company's first quarter ending April 30, 1959, were more than double sales during the first quarter of the 1958 fiscal year.

This improvement occurred even though a fire last New Year's Day completely destroyed BVI's plant and offices at Grayslake.

TEMPORARY PLANT facilities were set up at Libertyville and by Jan. 12, electric can openers, paint sprayers and other tools and appliances were back in production.

Construction on a new BVI plant, 85 per cent larger than the old one, is now under way in Grayslake. Bell said he expects production to be started in the new building in September.

Midshipman Makes Honor List Again

Achieving the Superintendent's List at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., was Midshipman Dennis W. Brazina of 258 Park Ave., Antioch.

The Superintendent's List is similar in many ways to the Dean's List at many colleges and universities, although at the Naval Academy it is much more difficult to achieve and therefore a higher honor. In order for a midshipman to be named for the list he had to meet a minimum academic average of 80 per cent in aptitude and possess a conduct standing satisfactory to the Commandant of Midshipmen.

Those midshipmen who achieve this distinction are granted special privileges commensurate with their class.

To Stage Zion Passion Play Outdoors

Because of the April 11 fire which destroyed the Zion Auditorium where the Zion Passion Play was presented since 1939, the Rev. Jabez Taylor, author and producer of the play, announced this week that plans are under way to present the religious drama outdoors through the month of June, near the site chosen for the new sanctuary, auditorium and educational unit of the Christian Catholic Church, which was also destroyed by fire.

An outdoor amphitheatre is being prepared which will be unique in its arrangement for continuous operation of the various scenes of the play. The stage is so arranged that the sun falls on the players and scenery to provide natural lighting from behind the audience who will be seated in a bowl-type arrangement.

The Rev. Mr. Taylor indicated that it will be unnecessary to revise the play in any way from the script and sequence of scenes which this year were substantially altered from previous years.

THE FIRST and only presentation this year was April 5.

The producer said that those who have made reservations for future performances will receive refunds or credit as an alternative for one of the outdoor presentations in June.

The schedule of performances in the amphitheatre is as follows: June 7, 14, 21, and 28, with possible continuation through July. All performances are on Sunday afternoon and start at 3 p.m.

Plans are being made but it will be some time before the Passion Play Auditorium can be constructed because of limited funds. Many friends have sent in contributions toward the building fund. Anyone desiring to help financially may do so by sending funds to Zion Passion Play Building Fund, Zion, Ill.

Economy In State Government Starts by Cutting Many 'Small' Items

By State Rep. Paul Simon
 How can the State of Illinois save money in its governmental operations?

I know I don't have all the answers. But I think I have a few. One is that there must be more pressure from "folks back home" for economy in government. I think it is good for all of us to be reminded regularly that there are people concerned with the constantly rising costs of government. The pressure for spending greatly exceeds the pressure for saving money. The executive and legislative branches need to be reminded a little more often of public concern for excessive spending.

THIS DOES NOT mean that every increase in the cost of government is wrong. But a proper balance is needed and is not always there.

What are some things needed to give us this balance in Illinois?

1. A great evil in state government is setting aside money in special funds, known as "earmarked funds." Instead of putting all state income into one general fund and then spending on the basis of need, all kinds of separate funds are created and money from these separate funds apparently seem less sacred than money from the general revenue fund.

I recall during my first term submitting an amendment to eliminate a $55,000 decorative water fountain at the state fair from an appropriation. I was defeated in this move. The argument used was not that the water fountain was needed, but that the money for the water fountain comes out of the Agricultural Premium Fund "so it doesn't make any difference anyway."

ONE OF THE state senators last week said in a newspaper column that he was not going to oppose a needless state expenditure because it comes out of another of the earmarked funds.

I am convinced that the state loses millions of dollars each year because of the expensive habit of earmarking funds.

2. Patronage is an expensive luxury when carried on to the extent it is in Illinois. Whenever people are employed because they can produce votes instead of being employed because they can do a job well, the costs are tremendous. Illinois has many thousands of patronage jobs. The Governor of Wisconsin, by comparison, I am told has control over about 25 jobs and the Governor of California over 60.

3. Appropriations need to be reduced in many cases. Appropriations committees of the House and Senate have no staff really to examine the budgets and as a result intelligent voting on the budget is extremely difficult. The budget in Illinois has grown from $1.2 billion to $2.4 billion in six years. Much of this has been in the needed areas of education and welfare, but many of the increases are hard to justify.

THE APPROPRIATIONS for the secretary of state have risen roughly 133 per cent in six years. While our agricultural population has gone down, appropriations in this field have doubled in six years. And I could go on with many more examples.

One of the difficulties is that because the budget is such a complicated thing, many legislators apparently feel we must take the budget as proposed. As a result, during my three terms in the House I do not recall a single appropriation that has been substantially reduced.

4. Government officials need to be told by the administration and by legislators that needless frills should be cut out, no matter how small the savings may seem. The Governor could start by eliminating little things like the signs at the end of each highway construction job which say that William G. Stratton is the Governor. Democrats have been as guilty of this type of thing as Republicans, but no one can convince me that is necessary for doing a good job on the highway. The same thing goes for mass distribution of expensive highway maps and many other such little things. But the little things add up to a tremendous total.

I don't expect that these suggestions will be accepted readily because they tread on too many sacred toes. But if we expect government expenditures to fall in line with needs we'll have to step on some toes.

Smashes Jap Plans

On May 11, 1943, an amphibious force led by Rear Admiral F. W. Rockwell captured the Japanese stronghold of Attu in the Aleutians, thus wrecking Japan's hope for conquest of Alaska.

Safe??? Driving Rules Are Given

1. Always pass the car ahead on curves or at hills. It gives the fellow meeting you such a thrill.
2. Always speed! It shows you are a man of pep, even though traffic is heavy.
3. Always hold the middle of the road. You are entitled to one-half, so select the part you want.
4. Always race with a locomotive to the crossing. Engineers like it and it breaks the monotony of their jobs.
5. Always speed up when entering a main highway from a cross-road. You have just as much right as the other fellow.
6. Always shove on your brakes when skidding. It makes the job more artistic.
7. Always drive close to pedestrians in sloppy weather. We call this game "muddy-tag."
8. Always make your turns without looking back. You make more acquaintances that way.

Cost of Loving

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—State Sen. Carl L. Christensen has introduced a bill to raise the price of marriage licenses from $2 to $5.

The Antioch News and Antioch Theatre invite Christ DeYoung, Rt. 2, Box 639, Lake Villa, and one to attend Sunday, Monday or Tuesday (May 17-18-19) show at the Antioch Theatre.

Pure Milk Assn. To Merge With Dairyland Co-op Assn.

Plans for merging Dairyland Co-operative Assn. of Juneau, Wis., with Pure Milk Assn., Chicago, two major Chicago market cooperatives with a combined net worth of $6 million, were completed at Juneau May 2, when the membership of Dairyland voted overwhelmingly for the merger at their annual meeting.

Avery Vose of Antioch will remain as president of Pure Milk Assn., the surviving company.

Both organizations had been negotiating for months to consolidate their facilities and forces. The proposed merger had been approved by their boards of directors prior to Saturday's meeting.

THE COMBINED operation will be known as Pure Milk Association and the Dairy Lane brand name used by Dairyland will eventually be carried on consumer packages of the merged organization.

Both Dairyland and PMA have substantial manufacturing and bottling operations. Studies and long-range planning have shown that by merging they can increase their savings and services to the 15,000 dairy farmer members whom they serve.

OFFICIALS of both organizations point out that the merger will broaden their area of consumer selling, effect improvements in plant operations, and permit better merchandising of products and more specialization of personnel. It will increase the marketing and bargaining strength of their members under Federal Order 41, which regulates the marketing of milk in Chicago and suburban areas.

Negotiations for the merger had been carried on by General Manager A. L. McWilliams, Assistant General Manager J. H. Argue, Sales Director Harry L. Edwards, and other officials of Pure Milk Assn., and General Manager William Wenzel, President John Leistico, and other officers of Dairyland Cooperative Assn.

Dairyland has plants at Juneau, Milwaukee and Wycena, and a distribution point at Watertown, Wis.

Add New Books To Library

Board members of Antioch Township Library are pleased with the new edition of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia that has been added to the reference section.

Three new books have been given to the library as memorial books. "Teapot Dome," by M. R. Werner and John Starr, is in the library in memory of Albert Herman. The book describes Secretary of the Interior's appropriation of the naval oil lands and his final illegal sale of them to his friends Harry Sinclair and Edward Doheny for a personal profit of half a million dollars.

HARRY GOLDEN'S "Only in America" was given in memory of Mrs. Pauline Johnson, mother of Paul A. Yokes. This book, by an outstanding liberal with an infallible nose for sham and prejudice, is fast becoming the most-quoted book since Shakespeare.

"A Handbook of Salt-Water Fishing," by O. H. P. Rodman, is now on the library shelves in memory of Joseph Labdon. Since the size and variety of the game and the techniques employed are very different in ocean waters, the fresh water angler needs to learn new tactics. Identification of game fish, tackle, surf casting, trolling and spinning are each discussed in detail in this fine book.

Youth Rally Saturday At Lake Villa School

The Lake Region's Bible Clubs will have the Rev. Floyd Ankerberg as guest speaker at the May 16 Rally to be held in the Lake Villa Grade School at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Ankerberg is currently president of the Greater Chicago Sunday School Assn. and formerly worked with Youth for Christ.

Also on the program will be several special musical numbers presented by young people. Hi-C rallies are produced for the teenagers of this area. Everyone is welcome.

FL Hills Folks Getting Over Bouts with Illness

By Jim Jankowiak
(written for week of May 7)
Fox Lake Hills Correspondent

It appears that many people in the subdivision are sick or just getting over some sort of sickness. Mr. Kent of Lehman Dr. is back from the hospital and progressing well. Mrs. Erickson just went into St. Therese for observation. While on the subject of hospitals, the Otto Ellis family has a new addition in son, Keith, who weighed in at 10½ lbs.

Former Association President William Anderson's son, Bill, was recently married to the former Coris Auburn in ceremonies at the First Congregational Church of Lombard. In attendance were the bride's sister-in-law, and Lt. James Anderson. Association Secretary Julia Chonis reports that the zoning board rejected the rezoning for commercial purposes of the corner of Monaville and Grand.

Sec. Flemming to Speak At UI Commencement

Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, will speak June 13 at University of Illinois Commencement ceremonies. Flemming has had a distinguished career in education and in public service under Presidents of both parties. He came to his present post from the presidency of Ohio Wesleyan University, his alma mater.

Since 1941 he has received 17 honorary degrees, and in 1957 was awarded the Medal of Freedom by President Eisenhower.

called into the Waukegan tax office.

A notice to all new residents: you have until May 23 to register for the June election for State's Attorney.

We also wish to thank Harold Riley, chairman of the beach committee, for the splendid job done in cleaning up the recreation area. Harold states that he still needs volunteers to paint the beachhouse.

Janice Jankowiak and Marie Tischler of Unit 1 were recently seen as actors in Prince of Peace School's play, "Off the Track." The girls did a fine job in their first acting experience.

CAR BUYERS TELL WHY MERCURY SALES RISE..53.8%

"NEW MERCURY OWNERS BETTER SATISFIED THAN OWNERS OF ANY COMPETITIVE '59 CARS," says independent survey. Thousands of new-car owners were recently asked by a private research organization what they liked and disliked about their cars. (See typical answers below.) The results showed Mercury owners were best satisfied—and by a wide margin.

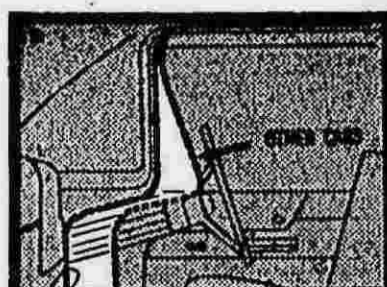

ALL THIS AND ECONOMY, TOO! 210-HP ENGINE USES REGULAR GAS. "It's like getting every tenth tankful free," say Mercury owners. More than that, every Mercury engine (the industry's newest!) really squeezes extra miles from a tankful of gas. Notice that in the recent Mobilgas Economy Run Mercury beat 19 cars including Buick, Olds and Pontiac.

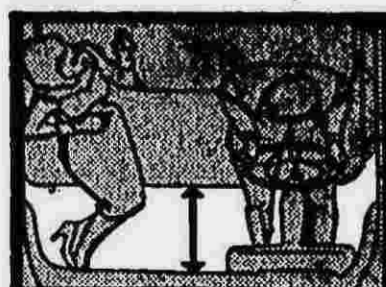

"The middle passenger gets a real seat." Mercury cut the center hump in half. You get reasonable foot room and seat cushioning.

"I can step into my Mercury like a lady." Mercury has the widest doors of any car. No need to back, fall or crawl into your seat.

"Mercury gives my knees some relief." That bruising cornerpost that sticks way out on other cars is moved back, out of the way.

Still Hope Jack Benny Will Be Home for Waukegan Centennial

"Jack Benny's hometown" is getting ready to celebrate its 100th birthday. And Jack—violin, Maxwell and all—probably will be home for the festivities, says Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjian.

"Jack told me that he definitely will be home for the centennial if he does not make a proposed trip out of the country. He did assure me that he is making every effort to be here and is tightening up his schedule to do it," Sabonjian said.

ALTHOUGH IMPROMPTU merry-making already has begun, formal festivities will get started June 19 and continue through the 28th. Included in centennial activities are a historical pageant with a cast of 1,000; the Cypress Gardens, Fla., water ski show; parades; dances; military displays; a centennial yacht race on Lake Michigan; carnivals; fashion shows; teas; industrial displays; and a presentation of the "Waukegan of the future."

Among the famous sons who have been invited home, in addition to Benny, are Nat "King" Cole, entertainer; Vincent Price, motion picture and TV star; Otto Graham, football star and coach at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy; and Ray Bradbury, novelist.

"We hope our neighbors in Illinois and the surrounding states will come and help us celebrate. We have a good show prepared for them," Sabonjian said.

Prom Time Is Near; Crown Queen Saturday

By Arlene Rozek

"Blue Heaven" will be the theme of the junior prom this weekend. Dani Strattan, Janice Hughes, Sharon Dittman, Judy Smith, and Judy Worsley are the nominees for prom queen. At 10:30 p.m. Judy Maleck and Don Sheehan, last year's queen and king will crown the new royal couple.

The gym will be decorated with clouds, stars, and other features which will help give the illusion of dancing in a "Blue Heaven." Committees of juniors have been working long hours this week to complete the decorations and other details in connection with presenting a successful prom.

After the prom, the destination for most couples will be Nipersink Manor.

Under the Teepee

Well, here we are with the last issue of our newspaper. It seemed like only yesterday that we started printing our paper and here it is our last issue.

Saturday is the big night for the juniors and seniors. The prom committee is in the final week of decorating and it is beginning to look real nice, so I'm told. Who will be the queen is the big question right now. Will it be Sharon Dittman, Janice Hughes, Judy Smith, Dani Strattan, or Judy Worsley? Everyone seems to have their own opinion and no one will know until that night.

The faculty is also planning to have some fun this weekend. Sunday afternoon is the faculty picnic, and with Miss Nickelson in charge, it should be a big success.

As this is our last issue, it is fitting that we bid farewell to the Class of '59. May they never forget the happy moments they spent in high school.

Next week the seniors head for Devil's Lake for their annual Senior Class Trip. They will make the long trip by bus.

I guess that is all for now and is the last time we will write for the paper. I would like to take this opportunity to wish the new staff for next year a lot of success.

Secret Of Leebies Revealed At Last

(By Dan Conrad)

Well, here you are, folks, the secret of fresh leebies is out. You've been waiting for the last two issues of the Tom-Tom to find out, and here it is!

Fresh leebies are nothing! That's right, nothing. Now, before you all blow your stack, a few words of advice.

FRESH LEEBIES, although being nothing, can be extremely useful. As you yourself have proved, fresh leebies can promote a powerful anxiety in other people. If you start to mention fresh leebies to a few people, and don't tell them what they are, they will certainly be interested in you for a while.

Fresh leebies also become extremely useful when you want to swear but don't want to use curse words.

AND AS A LAST useful purpose of fresh leebies, they can be used to designate almost anything. You can go around telling your friends to shut up or else they'll scare away the fresh leebies, or you can pretend to talk to them at the lunch table.

Your friends may think you're a little nuts, but you'll have fun!

It takes at least a full year aboard an active submarine for an officer to become eligible to pin on his "dolphins" and become a full-fledged submariner.

Seniors Will Visit Devil's Lake, Wis.

By Chris McNeil

The seniors have been making big plans for their class trip. After much discussion and planning, they have decided that they could have the most fun at Devil's Lake State Park in Wisconsin.

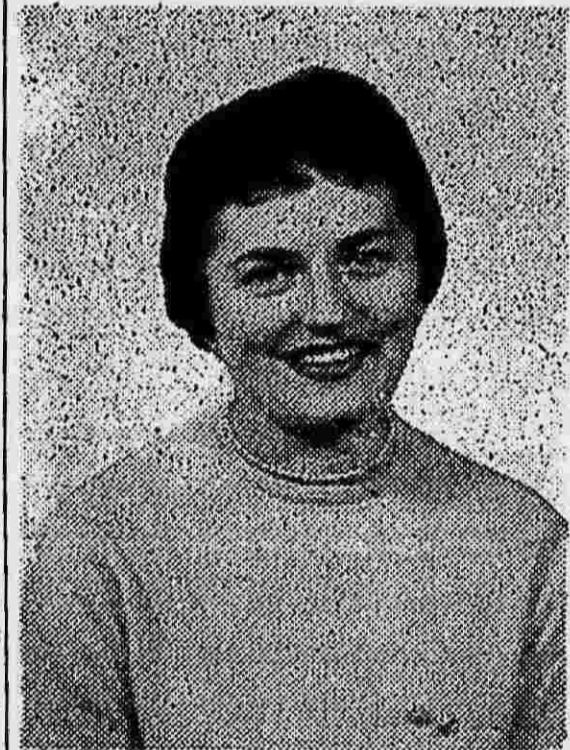

The center of attraction is the crystal clear Devil's Lake. It is completely surrounded by scenic hills. There is an eating place and plenty of room. Some amusements at the park are horseback riding, swimming, picnicking and climbing hills.

Tuesday, May 19, is the day the seniors have chosen for this trip. They have chartered three buses from the Graff Bus Lines which will leave at 8:45 a. m. on May 19. There will be one teacher and two parents on each of the three buses to act as chaperones. The seniors plan to arrive back in Antioch at 10 p. m.

Accomplishments Of Grad Told

An Antioch High School graduate, Joan Cervinka, was recently featured in an article in the Lake Forest College newspaper, The Stentor.

Joan was chosen as "Forester of the Week," and the article told of her many activities and accomplishments in college, a great many of which are in music. According to the article, Joan's interest in music was apparent while she was in high school and grew in college.

Many other activities have a share of Joan's time, including being secretary of her sorority, being a director of the annual Variety Show, and serving on the Senior Dance committee.

Count Good Vote In Student Election

The Student Council election returns showed that a good percentage of the students voted this year. The executive offices of the Student Council will be filled next year by Bob Martin, president; Karen Lightsey, vice-president; Sharon Dittman, secretary, and George Mantis, treasurer.

The freshmen this year have elected Judy Rosquist to be their secretary; and Bud Dittman, Joe Ennis, and Jane Lassen to represent them on the Council next year. JOE ETEN WILL be the class president of next year's junior class. Gary Richter will be vice-president. Student Council representatives will be Dan Conrad, Bill Bonner, and Jill Anderson.

The juniors elected Terry Plack to be their senior class president and Chip Eberman to be their vice-president. Sherry Davis and Pat Callahan will be the secretary and treasurer respectively, and Eleanor Schley and Norma Brown will be the Council representatives.

The number of freshmen registered to vote were 185. Out of this number 16 were absent and 35 did not vote. Percentage-wise, 74 per cent voted, 18 per cent did not vote, and 8 per cent were absent.

ONE HUNDRED eighty-nine sophomores were registered to vote, but 14 were absent and 47 did not vote. This leaves 88 per cent of sophomores that voted, 7 per cent who were absent, and 25 per cent who were present but failed to vote.

The juniors did a little bit better than the sophomores, 167 were registered to vote, 7 were absent, and 19 didn't vote. In per cents, 84 per cent of the juniors voted, 4 per cent were absent, and 11½ per cent didn't vote.

Five out of the 94 seniors registered were absent, and seven didn't vote. This leaves 88 per cent who voted and 11½ per cent who didn't vote.

None of the faculty were absent, but only 27 out of 41 voted.

On a grand scale 676 voters were registered and 512 voted. The absences on this scale totaled 42.

Moorman, Leebie Scientist, Gives His View In Report

This letter is in the spirit of fun—it is not as serious as it may seem. However, the facts stated in it are true.

I WOULD LIKE to straighten Dan Conrad out on Leebies. Here is a point-by-point rebuttal of what he has said:

1. Oma and I found the first leebie. (Actually she found it.)
2. We did not take it to my house.
3. My mother DOES like leebies.
4. There is no such thing as a FRESH leebie.
5. There is no such thing as a French Furred Leebie. (Leebies do not have fur.)
6. Italian leebies are the most priceless.
7. Dan does not really know what a leebie is.

IT IS A DISGRACE to our Tom-Tom to have someone writing articles when he knows nothing about the subject, and uses second-hand information that is wrong.

Leebies are very nice and dislike publicity. Mr. Conrad's entire series on the leebie should be disregarded.
